THE NATION, REPUBLICAN, DEMANDS A PROTECTIVE TARIFF.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—"This election, like others held since 1912, demonstrates that the country is Republican and favors a protective tariff," said John C. Eversman, secretary of the Republican Congressional Committee, in a statement here today.

"It shows," continued Mr. Eversman, "that the Wilson administration remains a minority and a sectional one; that the Progressive party disappears as a potential factor in American politics; that the Republican gains in Congress put an end to the half-baked and sectional legislation which has characterized the present Democratic administration."

"In the 'Solid South,' as usual, 123 Democratic Congressmen were elected with hardly any opposition, and little responsibility to their constituents, and were it not for this President Wilson would face today a more serious rebuke than the one the people administered in 1892, when it attempted to foist free trade upon the country."

"The wonderful victory of the Republicans in New England, Pennsylvania, Ohio, the Central States, Kansas and, indeed, all over the country, where the Bull Moose leaders ran a bad third, means a united and victorious Republican party in 1916."

Wide and Condemnation of the Democracy All but Universal—Hungry Men Sick and Tired of being Held Their Condition is "Psychological"—Election Reports Foretell Splendid Future.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 4.—The country has returned to its old and tried friend, the Republican party, to restore prosperity. It has ignored all other issues, and, with an emphasis that cannot be overestimated, has declared its determination to have no more of the Democratic tariff revision and Democratic sagging of business. The condemnation is nationwide. The East has voted with the West with the East—both with the same firm and unalterable purpose. The results mean that the battle of 1916 has begun and that the Republican party has been commissioned to undertake it in the name of the people.

The country marked an era of Democracy and depression; today the country marks a new era of Republicanism, optimism and prosperity. President Wilson and Democratic leaders in Washington profess to see the results as an encouraging Democratic victory. They have professed from the amazement which seized them when the returns came in last night, and which sent most of them early to bed with nerves and sinking hearts. Today, however, they had partially recovered.

WASHINGTON. Democrats at the capital are greatly cast down by the defeat in Tuesday's election, as it is considered probable the majority in the House has been cut down to seventeen.

MEXICO. Mexico now has two capitals and two provisional Presidents, but neither holds forth in Mexico City.

THE GREAT WAR. The Situation to Date.—Seventeen warships reported sunk in a naval engagement on the North Sea.

TURKEY officially at war with Russia, Britain and Serbia.

English effort to land troops on Egyptian border frustrated.

Gov. Waldeck of Kiao Chow reported injured.

German report they have repulsed French south of Verdun.

The French official communique reports slight progress.

COMMENT ON THE SITUATION. Rumors of a great naval engagement reached the American press late last night via Ottawa. According to the situation in East Prussia and Poland. The fighting is continuing in France and Belgium, but without result. The same may be said of the situation in East Prussia and Poland. The dispatches betray evidence that the armies are fatigued again. Though the Turks are officially at war with three nations, not much gun powder has yet been wasted by any of them.

WHY UNCLE SAM IS ALL SMILES.

For the reduction of the Democratic majority in Congress to 17 (estimated.)

For the recovery of the country from the agony called "Progressivism."

For the election of 14 (and possibly 17) Republican Governors in the twenty-nine States voting.

For the recovery of the stock market based on returns of Republican victory.

For the promise that the protective tariff will be restored.

For the portent that Wilson will be defeated if he ever stands for election again.

For the fact that manufacturers, with relief in sight from Democratic legislative blundering, have taken fresh hope and will resume business.

For the return of "Uncle Joe" Cannon.

For the dehorning of the bull moose.

For the return of Washington State to the Republican fold.

For the repudiation of free trade tariff tinkering.

For the triumph of Reed Smoot over the combination of "Progressives" and Democrats.

For the Republican victory in Colorado.

For the notice to Bryan to keep on lecturing.

SHERMAN IS RE-ELECTED SENATOR FROM ILLINOIS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—Lawrence Y. Sherman (Rep.) was re-elected to the United States Senate over Roger C. Sullivan (Dem.) by an estimated plurality of 6000 or more, according to the latest returns tonight from Tuesday's election. Raymond Robins (Prog.) ran a poor third.

With only 800 small rural precincts to hear from, and an average plurality of twenty-two to the precinct for Sherman outside of Chicago, Sherman's down-State lead was $2,481, as against a plurality for Sullivan in Cook county of $4,599.

At the Sullivan headquarters, however, it was asserted that the extreme southern counties from which reports usually are very slow to come through, would vote for the Republican ticket in Sullivan's favor, as they did for President Wilson two years ago, when early indications were that Roosevelt had carried the State.

In the Congressional fight, the Republicans made decided gains, returning Joseph G. Cannon, former Speaker of the House, in the Eighteenth District; William B. McKinley in the Nineteenth, and probably William A.

Rosenburg in the Twenty-second District. If the final count proves Rosenberg victorious, the Republicans will have advanced from four to twenty members in the lower House, while the Democrats will have ten instead of the twenty members in the last House. Ira C. Copely of the Eleventh District is the only Progressive in the place of the three in the former House.

Medill McCormick, "Progressive" National Committeeman, was the one Progressive elected to the State Legislature from Chicago.

The Democrats will have control of the next State Senate while the House may be deadlocked.

The women's vote seemed to maintain the same proportion of the total cast in each of the three parties. The expected advantage which the "Progressives" hoped to show through the votes of the women did not appear in the returns for municipal judges, in which women balloted with men.

Most of the State offices were conceded to the Republicans. Andrew J. Russell, Republican, was elected State Treasurer; Francis G. Blair (Rep.) Superintendent of Public Instruction; Charles W. Vall (Rep.) clerk of the Supreme Court.

Those from the Bible are appointed for every day of the year. The lesson for November 3 includes the second epistle of Paul to Timothy, chapter IV, 2, 4, which reads as follows: "For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine. But after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; and they shall turn away their ears from the truth and shall be turned unto fables."

"I have nothing to add to this at present. After all the returns are in, I may have something more to say."

BUCKEYE REPUBLICANS REJOICE IN VICTORY.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

COLUMBUS (O.) Nov. 4.—Though the anti-Cox Democrats centered their fire in the campaign on Gov. James M. Cox, so pronounced is the Republican victory in the State that the entire Republican State ticket has been elected by from 15,000 to 23,000 plurality. Both branches of the Legislature are Republican by safe working majorities, assuring Governor-elect Frank B. Willis of power to secure repeal of the machine-making laws that he attacked in the campaign.

The Republican gain in the Ohio Congressional delegation is even more pronounced than appeared last night. It will be composed of twelve Repubicans and ten Democrats. The Fourth District, that never before sent a Republican to Congress, was carried by State Senator J. E. Russell (Rep.) Congressman George White (Dem.) of the Fifteenth District is also defeated by a Republican, W. C. Money, and H. C. Claypole (Dem.) in the Eleventh is defeated by Edward Ricketts (Rep.) State Representative S. H. Williams of Lorain (Rep.) will succeed E. K. Bathrick (Dem.) in the Fourteenth District and D. B. Francis (Dem.) who two years ago unexpectedly defeated Congressman D. A. Hollingsworth (Rep.) is now defeated by Mr. Hollingsworth. Warren G. Harding (Rep.) succeeds Theodore Burton as Senator.

FINAL BLOW TO WILSON.

Majority in House May be Lost.

Tammany now Has the Whip Hand in the Democratic Party.

Margin of Administration in Lower House Fixed at Seventeen.

Great Gains for the Old Guard are Continuing to Pile Up.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 4.—President Wilson will retain control of the next House of Representatives by a Democratic majority reduced from about 145 to 117. So the incomplete returns indicate. This margin may be wiped out entirely, because the twenty Tammany Congressmen are bitter against the President, and may vote with the Republicans. Leaders of the rival parties dispute the size of the majority. Ever since the polls closed returns from the fringe-line districts have come in, but with final returns reported on all but about fifty contested seats, the pointer is still hovering around the 117 mark.

Interest in the Senate has become secondary—from the first the indications were that the Democratic majority of ten would not be diminished, but that instead it might be increased by the capture of one or two seats. The returns still incomplete in seven States, continue to show that the Democratic majority in the Senate is intact, and that it has apparently been swelled from 30 to 34.

Republican leaders put forth a claim from Washington tonight that the Democratic majority in the House has been cut to ten, with possibilities that they may be wiped out entirely. Democratic leaders, who have been carefully checking up district by district, announced that the party majority in the House would range somewhere between 25 and 35.

TOTALS VACILLATING. The totals are still vacillating, the Democrats wresting a district from the Republicans here and there, the Republicans gaining one there. In many instances the final are not following the early estimates, for example, in West Virginia, where the victory of Tuesday night was disproved by final returns tonight, showing the Democrats had retained the two seats they now hold.

In South Dakota, which was carried by Roosevelt in 1912, Charles H. Burke, Republican, has probably defeated Edward S. Johnson, Democrat. Another South Dakota Democrat, Harry L. Candy, has defeated W. C. Rice, Republican, for the seat in Congress from the Third District. The Republicans were not looking for reverses in South Dakota.

In Utah, which was one of the two States carried by Taft in 1912, Senator Reed Smoot, Republican, has defeated James H. Moyle, Democrat, on a Democratic-Progressive ticket. They were racing neck and neck, but Smoot is winner. The Republicans conceded the election of the Democrat-Progressive in the Second District, which is an unexpected gain by the Democrats.

WISCONSIN IN DOUBT. In other States, normally Republican and now represented by Republican Senators, the Democrats are showing a strength that has surprised the Republicans. Wisconsin is in doubt, according to word from Milwaukee at midnight. Related, though incomplete, returns indicate that Gov. McGovern's plurality has been reduced to somewhere between 1000 and 4000 over Paul O. Huston, Democrat. The outlook is that the official canvass may be necessary to determine the result beyond doubt.

The race in Kansas is still undecided. Congressman George Nesley, Democrat, is still in the lead for the seat now occupied by Senator Brian, Republican, who failed to be re-

RUSSIAN OFFICIAL REPORT.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

PETROGRAD, Nov. 4.—The following official communication from the Russian General Staff headquarters was given out here tonight:

"A sudden change has been noted since November 3 on the East Prussian front, the enemy, which recently has been on the defense almost everywhere, has begun to fall back at certain points. This retreat is precipitate on the left and on the right, which was vigorously thrown back toward Biala and Lyck. Our troops took Bakalarjov, capturing a large quantity of arms and ammunition and making prisoners of a German company.

"On the left bank of the Vistula the Germans continue their precipitate retreat toward the frontier. Their rear guards have been dislodged from Kolo and Frischort. On the morning of November 3 we drove back the Austrians toward Kielec, which place our troops occupied, making 400 prisoners and taking machine guns. On the same day we won a decisive victory over the Austrians along the whole front from Kielec to Sandor. Our troops took Sandor, which is an important strategic point.

"In the region south of Kielec during the past week we have made prisoners of 200 officers and 15,000 soldiers, and have taken a large number of cannon, as well as machine guns. During the night of November 3 the Austrians made a series of attacks which were repulsed, but they retreated. Our troops took a first footing in the region of Nisko and Rudnik.

"There is nothing to report from the rest of the front.

"The Turkish fleet is concentrated in the Black Sea, with a base on the Bosphorus. Apparently they are trying to avoid a fight with our forces."

FROM THE STAFF.

An official communication from the staff of the Russian army in the Caucasus, given out here today, says that Russian troops have crossed the Turkish frontier, driving back the enemy's advance guards and taking a number of towns.

The text of the communication follows:

"Our troops have crossed the frontier of Turkey and having driven back the Turkish advance guard, they took Kizilirmak, after engagements of the towns of Zivine, Karakilme, Pashinka, Ahit, Soutak, Khoron, Mysoun and Arap.

"The Turkish forces retreated after having suffered losses and abandoned their dead."

BRUXELLES, Nov. 4, (via Paris, 4:10 p.m.)—The Belgian Minister of War today made public an official report received by him from Fumes on the Belgian coast half way between Dunkirk and Ostend, the text of which is as follows:

"Detachments of allied troops, which today pushed ahead as far as Lombardstede on the Yser front below Schoorbeek. The enemy, only small detachments of artillery still remain in the direction of Westende and to the north east of Schoorbeek. Small portions of the enemy's rear guard still are holding several bridges and farm houses on the left bank of the river near Bruytenkade.

"An almost unbroken column of the enemy, composed of all arms and extending from Lake de Thourout, has marched in an easterly direction. No

OFFICIAL BRITISH STATEMENT.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Nov. 4, 12 noon.—An official account of the operations of the British fleet in the North Sea today was given out by the Admiralty, the text of which is as follows:

"On November 1 our troops were attacked all along the line, but the enemy everywhere was repulsed and suffered a very heavy loss. Our howitzers demolished two of the enemy's eight-inch guns.

"The maintenance of an unbroken line and the repulse of repeated assaults, which has caused in some cases the loss of the entire line, has greatly discouraged the German troops, has naturally entailed losses on the defending force.

"On the night of October 31 a strong attack on Messines was beaten off. At one point the enemy, by dint of their machine guns, penetrated for a time into the LONDON, Nov. 4, 9:30 p.m.—Turkey has now definitely broken off diplomatic relations with Great Britain, France, Russia and Serbia. Her diplomatic representatives in the capitals of these countries, acting on orders from the Porte, today demanded and received their passports. Some of them already have left their posts, while the others will depart tomorrow.

"Although no statement to this effect has been given out, it is understood that Turkey's apology for the actions of her fleet in bombarding Russian Black Sea ports and Russian ships proved unacceptable to the powers of the Triple Entente, in that Turkey was not prepared to accede to the demand that the German officers in her service be dismissed and the ships purchased from Germany dismantled.

"The powers which the Ottoman government thus defied are already taking warlike action against Turkey. The British have destroyed Fort Akabah, in Arabia; the Russians have invaded Asia Minor, and an Anglo-French fleet is bombarding the forts of the Dardanelles.

Now that Turkey has aligned herself among the nations at war, speculation is rife as to what the other Balkan powers will do. Greece is said to be preparing to take sides with the allies, while Bulgaria has given assurances of her neutrality. Bulgaria, however, is mobilizing for, as a Bulgarian diplomat said: 'With Turkey

GERMAN CRUISERS IN THE PACIFIC CAUSE APPREHENSION.

Naval Authorities Meet at Ottawa to Consider Means for Protection of the Coast Cities—Bombardment of Victoria—Only Immediate Relief Can Come from China Squadron.

OTTAWA, (Ont.) Nov. 4.—The presence of five German warships in the Pacific off the coast of Chile and the probability that two more, the Dresden and the Emden, are on their way to join them, created considerable apprehension here for the safety of Canadian cities on the Pacific Coast.

To meet the situation, the naval authorities at Ottawa were in conference all forenoon. Measures of some sort it is said, will likely be taken, though what they are has not been determined.

The fact that the German warships had been gathered into one fleet was held as a clear indication that Germany had perfected arrangements for coaling the fleet and it was felt that little could be done to round up this fleet until British and Japanese warships now at Tientsin are relieved.

It is feared that the German fleet may steam north and under threat of long distance bombardment attempt to levy tribute on the city of Victoria. The only danger to which the city would be subject in carrying out such an enterprise, it is pointed out, would be an attack from the two submarines which Canada brought from Chile at the opening of the war and which are stationed in the waters above Vancouver Island.

BRITISH CRUISERS NOT HEARD FROM.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

SANTIAGO (Chile) Nov. 4.—No word came today from the British ships that engaged the German squadron off Coronel Sunday, and the British side of the story is left to be told. According to German accounts the armored cruisers Scharnhorst and Gneisenau and the light cruisers Nürnberg, Leipzig and Bremen, escaped unscathed, while the British cruiser Monmouth was sunk, the cruiser Good Hope put out of action and the cruiser Glasgow, with the transport Orontes, sent scurrying for shelter in the neutral port of Talcahuano, where they are bottled up by the Leipzig and Bremen.

RUSSIANS CARRY FIGHTING INTO GERMAN TERRITORY.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 4.—There are two developments in the fighting in Belgium that will have an influence on the operations of the next few days. One is the withdrawal of the Germans from Yser River. The addition of these troops to the German forces farther to the south should result in added vigor for the attacks with which they are endeavoring to break down the British resistance at Ypres.

The mention in the official dispatches of the London-Scottish territorial regiment is particularly significant. If one territorial regiment has been sent to the continent, the rest must be ready to follow. The British territorial army at the outbreak of the war consisted of 118,000 men. Large numbers of them were sent to the front in the first few weeks of the war. The territorial army is now being retrained and is being sent to the front in the next few weeks.

If the Russians should stop to reorganize after their arduous campaign, the German forces might have a chance to carry out to good effect this shift of strength which has generally been admitted to be an important part of their war plan. But the Russians have shown no signs of such action. They have been close behind the German forces in their retreat, and any large weakening in the German forces in the East would be a serious blow to the Russian position. Germany has made use of it to some extent in striking the British in one direction and the Russian in the other. The defense of the allies against such a conduct of the war by the Germans has been a difficult task in a vigorous pressing of the campaign in every field.

Sea Battle off Chile Described as Most Spectacular.

Ocean Lashed to Fury When the Fighting Began.

GERMANS UNABLE TO RESCUE MEN BECAUSE OF STORM.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

VALPARAISO (Chile) Nov. 4.—The victory of the German fleet under Admiral Von Spee, consisting of the armored cruisers Scharnhorst and Gneisenau and the light cruisers Nürnberg, Leipzig and Bremen, over the British squadron, was described as the most spectacular sea battle of the war.

The Monmouth is known to have been lost, with practically all of her crew, as a result of this first big naval fight of the war; the Good Hope was severely damaged and on fire when she escaped under the command of the Chilean cruiser Esmeralda. The British cruiser Glasgow, which was bottled up in the port of Talcahuano, eight miles northwest of Concepcion.

It would seem like madness for these British ships to leave this haven of refuge and it is likely they will remain there until the German fleet is driven away. The German fleet, however, is likely to make its appearance and go to the rescue of the German fleet.

Admiral Von Spee in his official report of the battle, which took place Sunday afternoon off the Chilean coast, said that the German fleet was bottled up in the port of Talcahuano, eight miles northwest of Concepcion.

The Monmouth, under identical conditions, tried to escape but was followed by a small cruiser and was sunk with a few shots. Owing to the darkness the danger to which the British ships were subjected was a terrible loss of life.

The German admiral in noting the escape of the Glasgow and the Orontes, said it was due to their speed and the darkness.

Details of the fight, picked up from conversations with German officers who came ashore from the warships, show that the German fleet, owing to the escape of the Glasgow and the Orontes, was able to escape. The German fleet, however, was able to escape.

A comparison of the strength of the British and German vessels engaged last Sunday off the coast of Chile shows that the total British tonnage was 10,000 tons, while the German tonnage was 15,000 tons.

The Monmouth was built in 1909; the Good Hope in 1908, and the Glasgow the newest of the British ships in 1908.

The Scharnhorst and Gneisenau of the German fleet were built in 1905. The Nürnberg, Leipzig and Bremen were built in 1906. The Leipzig and Bremen were built in 1906.

All the vessels were equipped with the latest armament.

GERMANS COMMAND SOUTH PACIFIC.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—The brilliant victory of the German squadron over the British off the coast of Chile places a new emphasis on the naval situation in the Pacific.

For the present, at least, it definitely shifts command of the waters to the German fleet, and until there has been a readjustment of forces, will make itself felt in the movements of all commerce between the Pacific Coast and Europe.

Which way the Germans will elect to turn next is not speculation, but the naval authorities at San Francisco, who are free to move northward toward the mouth of the Panama Canal or to continue southward toward the Cape Horn route, are expected to make their decision in the near future.

At the same time the trade lines between San Francisco, Puget Sound and the Orient, already heavily followed by Japanese and British, are now cleared of menace, and the allied patrol vessels are against the enemy with a definite objective.

The engagement accounts for all German warships at large in the Pacific and east of Buss except the Emden, whose repeated raids on British commerce in the Indian Ocean have been so costly.

REPORT FIGHT IN NORTH SEA.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Commerce Department officials estimated tonight that October's export balance in favor of American trade would amount to $60,000,000. That would be an increase of $4,000,000 over September's balance, indicating the enormous extent of the trade problem's being since the first month of the war.

In August the value of imports exceeded exports by twenty million dollars, but as the war has been in progress and war began to make its demands on American mills and granaries, there was an immediate change in the flow of trade and balance of trade.

The department officials based their estimate of October's exports on reports from New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Galveston, New Orleans, San Francisco, Seattle, and Buffalo, which handle about 90 per cent of the country's business. Exports for the month of October, which has been directly affected by the war, the most brilliant chapter of our naval history.

RETURN TO REPUBLICANS.
ered, and say their satisfaction lies in the hope that the party has retained a working Democratic majority in both Senate and House, which will enable them to put through the remainder of their constructive legislative program before the Presidential fight opens. But the work of the majority is a task. It is so small that the Tammany machine can form all kinds of combinations and alliances against the President (for whom they have absolutely no affection.) This in turn will make of Congress a veritable friction.

AS TO CONGRESS.
There is no certainty that the Democrats will retain control of Congress. The returns indicate that their majority in the House has been cut from 145 to seventeen or less. In the light of this fact there is no satisfaction to the President and his friends that the twenty Tammany members from New York will have to be depended upon to furnish the majority in the House. Tammany will now have an opportunity to show its resentment by blocking the first move in this direction. It is said, might come through a demand that John P. Fitzgerald of Brooklyn, present chairman of the powerful House Appropriations Committee, be made House leader to succeed Oscar Underwood of Alabama, who has been elected to the Senate. Fitzgerald is not a Tammany member, but his friendship is for Tammany. The Tammany members in the present Congress refused to follow President Wilson on the Panama Canal toll repeal and Underwood had great difficulty holding them in line on other measures urged by the administration. Now, with the House Democratic control in their power during the next Congress, they may break the southern domination and embarrass the administration, which is surrounded by southern influences.

Joseph P. Tumulty, the President's secretary and confidential adviser, is hopeful that this condition can be avoided. He has sent urgent telegrams to all Democratic candidates defeated by narrow margins and it is probable that plans will be laid immediately by the administration to deal with all such where there is the slightest hope of strengthening the Democratic majority. This, also, is one of the plans the Tammany men can expect.

REPUBLICAN HOPES.
Republican leaders are hopeful that the administration will continue its policy of "constructive legislation." The disorganizing effect of the income tax, the tariff law and the "war" tax is a more potent political argument than anything the orators can suggest.

The administration says that within the next two years agriculture will be restored. This may be true, in a sense, but it will be prosperity based on hope, not because of any legislation by the Democracy, but in spite of it.

Dispatches from Boston this evening say the sweeping Republican victory in the House and of the country is the other has already caused a sharp advance in prices for active stocks—some of them jumping two dollars in the last few days. The returns were analyzed. Information of similar character comes from other cities. The Democrats cannot claim any credit for prosperity and they will be given no credit. The country will come out of its terrible depression, but this may be due to the fact that at the first opportunity, the machinery of the government will be returned to the hands of the party that has always been associated with prosperity, sane legislation and sound business conditions.

One feature stands out in striking prominence over and above the incidental and local circumstances of the election. The defeat of the Republican administration was to be expected. No party can tamper with the life of the nation, burden the people with experimental legislation, try to convince starving men that their hunger is "psychological," and that their inability to obtain employment is due to their own perversity and the "spite work" of disgruntled Republican employers, who close down their establishments and accept ruin for the sole purpose of "embarrassing the administration," and make a majority of the people accept the situation. It was inevitable that Democracy would suffer hard blows at the first opportunity offered.

But one thing, the returns show a final and decisive verdict. One more party of protest, based chiefly on disappointed ambition, has gone down in complete and inevitable defeat. Two years ago it displayed enormous pomposity. However, the public has come to look upon it as jointly responsible for the lamentable conditions under which the entire country is suffering and its collapse was just inevitable as was the defeat of the Democratic administration.

GOOD-BYE, DEMOCRATS.
Telegrams from the West, in response to a desire for some of the underlying reasons for the Republican landslide, brought this answer, which may be taken as typical of all the Middle West:

"It means a vote of displeasure at Democratic incompetence—chiefly the tariff with its bad effect on business, then also the fondering policies of war taxes, currency tinkering, ventures in government-owned shipping and Mr. Bryan's insane diplomacy. The great business interests of the country, including capital and labor alike, have gone back to the Republican party, in spite of its unchanged conservatism, for the sake of its wiser

HELD UP, BOUND AND GAGGED IN OWN HOME.

Proprietor of Cafe and Two Friends Report to Police They are Relieved of More than Two Thousand Dollars' Worth of Valuables by Trio of Robbers—Housemaid in Fetters.

THREE men, two of them masked and each armed with two revolvers, late last night held up, robbed and bound Fred Harlow, owner of the Harlow Cafe; Harry Raymond, a private detective, and T. N. Miller of the Marston Miller Detective Agency. The robbery occurred within the Harlow home at No. 4905 Cimarron street, and the bandits escaped with $275 in cash and about $1900 worth of diamond rings and stockpiles taken from the three men.

According to Mrs. Sam Robb, a maid in Mr. Harlow's home, the three bandits came to the house about half an hour before Mr. Harlow, with his wife, arrived. The men, according to the woman, said they were officers and friends of Mr. Harlow. When told that the cafe man was not at home the men said they would wait, and entered the house.

With Messrs. Raymond and Miller, Mr. Harlow drove in his automobile from the Harlow Cafe to his home. Opening the front door, he found the three men standing outside. Mr. Harlow stood aside to allow his friends to enter. Just as the men passed the door, according to the story, they were ordered to throw up their hands by the robbers. Mrs. Robb, according to the men, was bound and laid in a chair.

BOUND AND GAGGED.
While two of the bandits held the victims with their revolvers, the other relieved them of all cash and jewelry. After robbing them the bandits bound and gagged the three men and by way of the front door. A man's hand was heard to drive away a short time later, according to Mr. Harlow.

Mrs. Sam Robb, who has been with the Harlow family for some time, told the police from University Station, who investigated the robbery, that when the three men came to the house, she and her friends were in the front room of the residence. Not until Mr. Harlow and his party arrived at the front door, the woman declares, did the bandits make any suspicious moves. Then the men seized her, she declares, and bound her to a chair.

Following the robbery and escape of the bandits, Mrs. Robb freed herself from her bonds and released the three men. The matter was reported by Mr. Harlow to the University Station at once.

THEIR DESCRIPTIONS.
According to Mr. Harlow and his friends, the man who was not masked had at some time or other been seen about the Harlow place. Mr. Harlow declared last night he is unable to say who the man is, but he has seen him before.

THEIR DESCRIPTIONS.
The bandits' descriptions, according to Mr. Harlow, are:

No. 1, unmasked, 145 pounds, about five feet five inches, black hair, about the face and neck, and gray hair. He wore dark clothing.

No. 2—Blonde, about the same size as No. 1, and dressed in dark clothing. Wore a dark mask and carried two blue revolvers.

No. 3—About the same as No. 2. Was masked and carried two blue revolvers.

In talking to the victims, according to the story, the bandits seemed to have known them before, as they addressed them by their Christian names.

Officers and detectives from University Station and Central Police Station rushed in automobiles to the scene of the robbery and searched the ground for blocks in every direction. Officers have been posted at all railway stations and street car lines. No trace up to last night had been found of the bandits.

REVOLT GROWS IN SOUTH AFRICA.
(BY WIRELESS AND A. P.)
BERLIN, Nov. 4.—According to official information given out in Berlin today, certain firms in Amsterdam have been informed from South Africa that the insurgents in the Union of South Africa number 18,000 men. They have in their possession quick-firing and machine guns. The English war supplies in the Cape Colony are described as insufficient.

Our One-Price Plan Makes This Sale Real
It is our custom to mark the price of each hat in plain figures, on a tag attached.
As a result, each hat has only one price, which is just as easily read by the customer as by the saleswoman.

Such a plan makes a sale that we have—a genuine thing.
The sale now on here shows hats priced from $7.50 to $100—at prices from $1.50 to $25 less.

GERMAN CRUISER SUNK BY MINE IN JADE BAY.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)
LONDON, Nov. 5, 4:55 a.m.—The German cruiser York has struck a mine in Jade Bay and sunk. The information regarding the loss of the York reached London in an Amsterdam dispatch to the Reuters Telegram Company. It stated that an official dispatch from Berlin said that the York, in the forenoon of November 4, struck a mine chain blocking the entrance to Jade Bay and sank. Late reports declare that 323 men, more than half of the crew, had already been saved, but that the rescue work was hampered by a thick fog.

The York was an armored cruiser 102 feet long and had a complement of 557 men. She was built in 1904 and displaced 9500 tons.

Jade Bay, where the vessel was sunk, is an inlet of the North Sea on the German coast west of the mouth of the River Weser.

enforcement of neutrality, today paroled the two officers and two petty officers of the German cruiser Geric, who were arrested on their arrival from Honolulu, where the Geric was now.

Admiral Pond's action was taken, he explained, on the strength of a message from Count von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador at Washington, to Baron von Schack, the acting Vice-Consul here, in which the Ambassador informed the Baron that he had taken the case up with Washington and had received assurances from the State Department that an order for release on parole would be given.

Accordingly, Rear-Admiral Pond paroled the Germans within the limits of the port of San Francisco, and reported his action to the Navy Department at Washington.

CAPITAL CITIES MOVED DAILY.

Carranza Takes His Government to City of Puebla.

Gutierrez Establishes Himself at Aguascalientes.

Both Have Good Armies and Are Ready to Fight.

(BY A. P. MONT WIRE.)
EL PASO (Tex.) Nov. 4.—Mexico, with two provisional Presidents, had two provisional capitals today and neither of them was Mexico City.

Gen. Carranza, who for several days has been at Puebla, ordered his Cabinet ministers with the archives of the government to proceed there. Puebla is located between the national capital and Vera Cruz, where the American forces remain.

The ethnic capital is at Aguascalientes, scene of the recent conference of revolutionary chiefs who attempted an adjustment of the long-standing difficulties between Carranza and Villa. Gen. Eulalio Gutierrez, elected by the convention as provisional President, officiated at that city.

The Carranza Government has announced today that several important leaders had joined the Carranza side.

Among these were Gen. Alvaro Obregon, who has acted as a neutral in the Carranza-Villa dispute; Gen. Lucio Blanco, cavalry commander of Obregon's division and formerly chief of the eastern zone, and Gen. Antonio Villarreal, who has been president of the Aguascalientes convention.

Acquisition of the troops commanded by these leaders would place Carranza in a much stronger position than his insurgent commander in the north. Villa, however, has a much better organized army and superior equipment.

CARRANZA WILL FIGHT TO DEATH.

(BY A. P. MONT WIRE.)
SAN ANTONIO (Tex.) Nov. 4.—"If all the chiefs of the Constitutional army abandon me I will abandon my native land, but I, on the other, any part of them sustain and uphold me, we will fight until death."

These are the defiant words with which Gen. Carranza is credited in a statement given out at the Mexican Consulate here after the receipt of a telegram from Puebla last night.

The statement said Gen. Carranza had issued the following relative to the action of the delegates at Aguascalientes:

"These valiant generals have made effective a real revolution that has never been presented or forwarded by me and which I have never presented, and they have even gone so far as to appoint a president. And by this last act they have fallen into a neat trap prepared for them by some of the leaders of the Constitutional army."

Mr. Carranza, who was 44 years of age, had been ill since last June with cirrhosis of the liver. He came here against the advice of his physician.

He had made his home in Saratoga for the last six months and his son, P. Augustus Carranza, Jr., 3 years old, was the only relative he had here.

Mr. Carranza died about a year ago. A sister of Mr. Carranza, Mrs. William K. Carranza, and two brothers, Arthur P. Carranza and Otto Carranza, are on their way here. No funeral arrangements will be made until they arrive.

around Ypres, where the British troops are fighting. Although there is evidence that the new staff effort of Emperor William's forces to break through at this point has not yet really commenced, the Germans continue to bring up reinforcements and, under the eyes of the Emperor, are preparing to make another big attempt to get through to the coast.

Military men here say that the allies have just as good means for bringing reinforcements to their lines as have the Germans and express confidence that a new attack will prove as fruitless as previous ones.

The Indian troops and the pick of the English territorial forces have distinguished themselves in the fighting and come in for compliments from Gen. French.

EAST PRUSSIA.

For the trend of events on the East Prussian frontier, reliance has to be placed entirely in the Russian report, as the German headquarters say nothing about it. The Russians, according to a Petrograd report, have successfully met a German offensive movement from East Prussia and the Germans now are retreating across their own frontier, leaving large quantities of arms and ammunition behind them.

In Poland, still according to the Russians, the Germans are continuing to fall back, while further to the south the Russians at last have the Austro-German forces, forming their right wing, on the move, and have occupied the important towns of Kielce and Sandomierz, and have taken 200 officers and 15,000 men and several dozens of guns and machine guns.

HEINZE DIES AT SARATOGA.

HAD SENSATIONAL CAREER IN FINANCIAL WORLD.

After Acquiring Millions in Copper Mines He Went to New York and Lost Most of It in Speculative Ventures—Recently Involved in Suit with Gould.

(BY A. P. MONT WIRE.)
SARATOGA (N. Y.) Nov. 4.—F. Augustus Heinze, former owner of immense copper interests in the West, died suddenly here tonight.

Mr. Heinze, whose legal residence was Saratoga, came yesterday from New York to vote. He became ill yesterday afternoon at the home of his cousin, Judge Nash Rockwood. His condition grew steadily worse and he expired early this evening.

Mr. Heinze, who was 44 years of age, had been ill since last June with cirrhosis of the liver. He came here against the advice of his physician.

PROGRESSIVES GONE TO PIECE.

Wiped Out as a Party Nearly Every State.

Even in California Far from Complete.

Heney, Candidate for Governor, Runs Third in Race.

(BY DEBBY WATSON.)
NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 4.—The Progressive Union except one state, has been wiped out as a party. The story of the negligible party Tuesday by the "Progressive" organized by Theodore Roosevelt in 1912 to promote his Presidential ambitions. The one state in which the "Progressive" party was successful, California, where Hiram Johnson, "Progressive" candidate for Governor, was elected by a plurality over the other candidates.

In all of the other states, except the main party campaign conducted by the "Progressive" party was to keep the party alive. In some cases it did not succeed in getting a number of votes necessary to get recognition as an official party. In others it was completely wiped out.

Francis Heney, the candidate of the United States Senate, ran a close second with James D. Phelan (Dem.) and Joseph Knowland (Rep.) in the race for Governor.

In Nevada the two candidates who were defeated, now no "Progressive" party.

PARTY DISINTEGRATED
In Idaho the "Progressive" party was less than one-half of the vote. The party was disintegrating. In Illinois the "Progressive" party was a strong organization, but outside the state it was the strength of its strength.

In Wisconsin the "Progressive" party who two years ago gave Governor William H. Upham 52,222 votes, could not get more than 10,000 votes yesterday for Heney.

The "Progressive" party candidates in Illinois, Ohio, and Pennsylvania were defeated. In Michigan the "Progressive" party was a factor in the politics of the state.

The party has no legal status. In the case of the "Progressive" party in Massachusetts, the party was a factor in the politics of the state.

WILSON WARNS UNION RIOTERS.
Proclamation Demands Peace in Arkansas District.
Troops are Told to Enforce Order in Coal Region.
Citizens Directed to Avoid Disorderly Meetings.

[BY A. P. MERRY WEBB.]
WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—This proclamation, signed by President Wilson, will be issued by Maj. McClure at the scene of the disturbances in Arkansas.

"Whereas, by reason of unlawful obstructions, combinations and assemblages of persons, it has become impracticable in the judgment of the President to enforce by the ordinary course of judicial proceedings the laws of the United States within the State of Arkansas and especially within the western Federal district and in the neighborhood of the towns of Hartford, Midland and Fort Smith, in said district:

"And, whereas, for the purpose of enforcing the faithful execution of the laws of the United States and protecting property and the commerce of the courts of the United States, the President deems it necessary to employ a part of the military forces of the United States, in pursuance of the statute in that case made and provided:

"Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States, do hereby admonish all persons who may be or come within the State district or towns aforesaid, against doing, countenancing, encouraging or taking any part in such unlawful obstructions, combinations and assemblages, and hereby warn all persons in any manner connected therewith to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes on or before 12 o'clock noon on the sixth of November instant.

"And, whereas, I have disregarded this warning and persist in taking part with a riotous mob in forcibly resisting and obstructing the execution of the laws of the United States, or interfering with the functions of the government or destroying, or attempting to destroy property in the custody of the courts of the United States or under its direction, cannot be regarded otherwise than as public enemies.

"Troops employed against such combinations and assemblages of persons will act with all the moderation and forbearance consistent with the discharge of their duty in the premises, but all citizens must realize that if they mingle with or become a part of such riotous assemblages there will be no opportunity for discrimination in the methods employed in dealing with such assemblages. The only safe course, therefore, for those not intentionally participating in such riotous assemblages, is to abide at their homes, or, at least, not to go or remain in the neighborhood of such riotous assemblages.

"In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed.

"Done at the City of Washington, this fifth day of November, 1914, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and fourteen, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and thirty-ninth.

"WOODROW WILSON."

MINE DISTRICT AWAITS TROOPS.
[BY A. P. MERRY WEBB.]
FORT SMITH (Ark.) Nov. 4.—Conditions were quiet today in the Hartford Valley coal-mining region, where the inhabitants are calmly awaiting the arrival of Federal troops, sent on orders of President Wilson to enforce the law in the coal-mining region of the United States to carry out its orders in administering the reversion of the Bache-Denman Coal Company, at whose mines occurred the recent troubles.

Maj. N. F. McClure, who will command the four troops of cavalry already en route from Fort Sheridan, Ill., reached Fort Smith this afternoon.

The Federal grand jury summoned to investigate conditions in the mining region, where miners are alleged to have prevented court officers from performing their duty, was impeached today and immediately adjourned until Friday, when Judge Frank W. Mansfield will deliver his charge.

THE WEATHER BACK EAST.
Shift in the Wind to the Northeast Brings Drop in Temperature All Over the Country.
[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 4.—A shift in the wind today from southwest to northeast brought a drop in temperature in the West Central and West Central States. In some of the latter group the mercury fell to perilously near the freezing point. The maximum temperature in Chicago was 58 deg., with a minimum of 54 deg. A cold rain in some sections promised to bring a severe drop in the temperature. Other temperatures:

King Inspects Troops.
[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
LONDON, Nov. 4.—King George and Queen Mary, accompanied by a small suite, left London today for St. Petersburg, where they will inspect the Canadian troops, who have been encamped in this locality since their arrival in England.

SEE OVERNIGHT HOW READILY POSLAM HEALS

Often when Poslam is applied to an eruption of the skin, the last you will see of the disorder, and the skin is clear next morning.

Poslam is efficiency itself in the treatment of such various eruptions as are easily demonstrated by trial overnight. Complexions are beautiful, freckles and blotches disappear, pimples removed. Nothing equals Poslam for itching eczema, for it not only removes the original trouble, but also prevents its return.

Your nearest sells Poslam. For free sample write to Emergency Laboratories, 22 West 25th Street, New York.

Poslam Soap, medicated with Poslam, beautifies complexion, prevents roughness. 25 cents and 15 cents.

WHAT CAUSED THE WAR?

The Soldiers Themselves Are Asking This Question

If the soldier in the fighting armies of Europe could read the new book, "The War," he would understand better the terrible struggle in which he is engaged. The present war is a continuation of the long history of the struggle for power and influence, and the present war is a continuation of the long history of the struggle for power and influence.

Is Your Hair Right For The New Fall Styles?

You will delight in arranging your hair in the new and interesting modes of this season if you keep it perfectly soft and fluffy so that it appears naturally heavy. This will be a simple matter if you use the right shampoo. It is not advisable to use a makeshift, but always use a preparation made for shampooing only. You can enjoy the best that is known for about three cents a shampoo by getting a package of May's Wonderful Shampoo. Dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water and your shampoo is ready. After its use the hair dries rapidly with uniform color. Dandruff, excess oil and dirt are dissolved and entirely disappear. Your hair will be so fluffy that it will look much heavier than it is. Its luster and softness will also delight you, while the stimulated scalp gains the health which insures hair growth.

IT'S GREAT FOR BALKY BOWELS AND STOMACHS.

We want all people who have chronic stomach trouble or constipation, no matter how long standing, to try one dose of May's Wonderful Stomach Remedy—one dose will convince you. This is the medicine so many of our local people have been taking with surprising results. The most thorough system cleanser we ever sold, May's Wonderful Stomach Remedy is now sold here by all druggists.

Legal Notice.

I hereby notify all creditors that I have purchased the "Hurd Mortuary" at 582 1/2 North Blvd., Los Angeles, Cal., and that all claims against the said mortuary must be presented within 15 days. Signed, WM. HEIDEMAN.

ADMIT, HOWEVER, THAT HE HAD CALL FROM STOVALL.

Snappy Seal Shortstopper Admits that He Would Like to Play Wherever They Come Through with the Big Money—Hes Berry Signs up a New Youth to Pitch.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

The future whetting and whittling of some of our leading shortstops is a question which is deeply puzzling the nuts.

There have been many conflicting reports regarding the plans of Roy Corhan of the Seals and Dave Bancroft of the Beavers, and the bugs had just about reconciled themselves to the loss of this exceptional pair of shortstops.

ULTIMATUM.

Bancroft announced not long ago that he would hurdle the Feds unless sold to a major-league club, while it was stated in eastern circles that Corhan had already signed with the outlay organization.

NO CHANCE.

"I have not even had a chance to sign with the Federals," declared Corhan, "which would seem to be the best evidence in the world that I have not signed. Stovall met me, it is true, but he did not so much as offer me a contract."

WOULDN'T SAY.

Corhan refused either to admit or deny any intentions which he may have regarding future relations with the Feds.

THE PHILLIES HAD SHOWN SIGNS OF WANTING CORHAN, but the possibility of such a deal appears to have been snipped by the announcement of Bancroft that he has agreed to sign a Philadelphia contract within the next two or three weeks.

It was the lack of a competent shortstop that cramped the chances of the Phillies this season, the desertion of Mike Doolan to the Feds creating a yawning vacancy in that important position.

Arizona Eleven Has Scored Fifty-five Points to None.

ARIZONA TEAM IS VERY LIGHT.

Relies on Short End Runs for its Gains.

Has a Clean Slate to Date This Season.

Punter Averages Fifty Yards, They Say.

(BY HERBERT WOOD—SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.)
TUCSON (Ariz.), Nov. 4.—I think that we will bring the best team that we have to meet Occidental Saturday at Los Angeles, and although we are somewhat crippled we will have no excuses to make whatever the result may be," is all the statement that Coach J. F. McKale of the University of Arizona will say about his bunch of desert football warriors that will leave for the Coast college Friday morning at 7:40 o'clock.

Thus far during the season the Arizona team has played but two games, disposing of the Douglas (Ariz.) Y.M.C.A. by a score of 31 to 0, and winning from the Tempe Normal last Saturday by 44 to 0.

Against a strong team like Occidental the Tucson machine is an unknown quantity and absolutely no predictions or claims are being made by variety fans over the outcome, but the whole school is trusting in McKale for a good showing.

Last year football was in bad shape and the local team suffered a series of humiliating defeats. McKale has been a successful coach at the Tucson High, using peculiar methods of his own to gain his ends.

Last spring when Athletic Director Quigley resigned, friends of McKale made a campaign for his election, winning against those who wanted an eastern coach. He took a special course at an eastern school and since his return has worked ceaselessly for a winning team.

He says little and uses his own original methods to get results out of his team. McKale is very much the whole team, and is popular with the whole team and school.

The probable line-up that will play against Occidental is as follows: Hammond, left end, 183; Miller, left tackle, 193; Smith (captain), left guard, 173; Smith, center, 163; Beach, right guard, 170; Hendry, right tackle, 184; Jackson, right end, 189; Crawford, quarter, 145; Meyer, a quarter, 181; Porter, left half, 146; Linn, right half, 149; Turvey, full, 170. Total, 1747, average, 164.

Capt. Smith is suffering from an abscess on his leg, and Clawson, who weighs the same, may play the guard position.

Meyer, a High School boy, is the favorite at quarter, and runs the team in a heady manner. Porter is the star of the back field and is a quarterback from Emory College, Ga. He will do the punting and average about fifty yards.

Turvey is depended on for bucking the line. In the line, Hendry at tackle, a Tucson High School boy; Beach, a veteran, at guard, and Linn, a new man from Yuma High, at center, are stars, and have been showing good class.

Thus far the team has been depending on short end dashes and line bucking for their gains. They are also doing some clever forward passing. The team is in perfect shape with the exception of Smith's trouble. Subs include McPherson, half, 180; Condon, tackle, 155; Arisano, guard, 171; Fletcher, end, 140; Cloud, half, 145. The team will go in a special car.

BOB SMALL WILL RACE DUKE AGAIN.

SAN FRANCISCO BOY WANTED IN AUSTRALIA FOR RACES.

Word comes from Australia that R. Small is wanted to make the trip to the antipodes to compete in the swimming carnivals to be held there during January and February.

The success of Small in defeating Kahanamoku last February at Honolulu has made him a regular in the eyes of the Australians, and as Kahanamoku is going to Australia to compete there, the natives want to see Small and the Duke in a race against their best.

Tad Wetzel, a swimming expert of Brisbane and an officer of the Commercial Swimming Club of that city, is anxious to have Small make the trip and meet Kahanamoku over a special fifty-yard race, as well as compete in the different meets during the season, including the Australian championships.

At the present time Small is swimming at his best, his great feat of 25 fathoms for the 4 and 52 fms. for the 100 at the Pacific Association championships last week showing an improvement in his speed. The time he beat Kahanamoku was with credit with 22 3/4 for the straightaway course at Honolulu.

Football Men Earn Big Money.

THIRTY DOLLARS EVERY MINUTE.

STANFORD AND CALIFORNIA RUGGERS WILL DRAW THAT MUCH.

(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.)

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Nov. 3.—Some say that a college education adds but little to one's earning capacity, and maybe they are right. But they are dead wrong when they say that an education in college football doesn't increase earning capacity.

Some thirty men, on November 14, will find their earning capacity jumping from about 25 cents an hour to the modest sum of $150 an hour. Thirty dollars a minute! Half of a good round dollar each tick of your watch! And all for knowing how to kick a wind-mill bladder with a pigskin covering.

Of course, the men don't get the money, but they earn it for their institutions. Manager Johnnie Stroud figures that the football team will earn the comfortable little sum of Harold Ballin, Of Princeton, All-American tackle, who will lead his team against Harvard eleven this coming Saturday at Cambridge.

WALLACE WON'T BE IN TIGER STRUGGLE.

HARDWICK IS SHIPPED TO THE BACK FIELD AGAIN IN MEANTIME.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
CAMBRIDGE, Nov. 4.—Harvard had its last scrimmage today in preparation for Saturday's football game with Princeton. There was no scoring, except field goals by Mahan, who was successful in five trials out of six from easy positions.

Hardwick returned to the back field as Bradlee has been given a day off. Smith, tacking Harvard's place in the Michigan game last Saturday, is still in the infirmary and his place at center was taken by Bigelow, who probably will start the game there against Princeton.

Capt. Brickley was on the field but did no running or drop-kicking.

TIGER BACKS GO AHEAD OF GAME.

WILL TRY OUT THE WIND IN THE BIG HARVARD STADIUM.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)
PRINCETON (N. J.), Nov. 4.—The Princeton football team had its last strenuous workout today preparatory to the Harvard game. Tomorrow there will be only an easy drill. The work today was held in the new stadium and lasted for three hours.

The back-end men, Tibbitts, Ames, Glick, Dykeman, Briggs and Law, with Gennert, the center, will leave for Boston tomorrow, and Friday afternoon they will have an hour of kicking and catching punts in the Harvard stadium. Other members of the squad will leave Friday.

Birmingham, champions of the Southern Baseball League, are touring Cuba. The trip will include all the principal cities of the island and public, and will be of a month's duration.

CLIFF-DWELLERS TO PLAY HOLLYWOOD TEAM TODAY.

THE CLIFFDWELLERS will fight their rugby battle with the Hillmen in Hollywood today instead of tomorrow. The prep powers put their heads together yesterday morning and moved the game a day ahead.

Coach Featherstone suggested that the game be postponed until Monday. But Coach Webster knew that L. A. had a couple of sick players who might be well by that time and stoutly refused. That proves that the Hollywood coach likes victory as well as the next one.

One of those monster rallies will be held at the new brick schoolhouse on the hill this noon. It is expected that every L. A. student will get so enthusiastic that he will snap his fingers at the 20 cent car fare and go to the game.

All of the Hollywood rooters will just step from their last recitation onto the field.

The Hillmen are in excellent condition with the exception of Schellbach, the lock. He is crippled temporarily and will be out of the game. Capt. Gooding will slip into lock.

Capt. Fishburne of L. A. is still in a weak condition, but will have an hour of kicking and catching punts in the Harvard stadium. Other members of the squad will leave Friday.

Discussion of peace, however, is only one of the things on the programme of the magazine. It is said the possible transfer of the ownership of the American League club in New York is likely to come up for discussion, according to a report circulated here, and it was pointed out that there was some similarity between the Stahl case, which resulted in a change at Boston, and the resignation of Chance as manager of the Yankees, which might be a feature of the debate.

Madison Square Garden's annual six-day bicycle race will begin with a revival of the heavyweight division on Saturday, November 14, in which starts from all parts of the world will take part. In fact, it is thought Frank Kramer, who has held the championship for thirteen years, is in grave danger of defeat. The six-day grind will start November 14.

QUAKERS SHOULD GIVE HUNS A HARD STRUGGLE.

WHAT will the Huns do this year? Wait until Saturday and find out how they stack up against the Quakers. Whittier is the trial horse of the southern college. It is not a champion team, but it takes at least a near-champion team to defeat it.

If the Huns win from the Quakers, Pomona stands a grand chance of winning from U.S.C. and Occidental—its two big games. If Whittier defeats Pomona, only a miracle can give it a victory over U.S.C. and Occidental.

Coach Stanton has put a bushel over his variety. An outsider has as much chance of watching the Huns graduate with a whole hide as a German would have of living if he proposed a toast to the Kaiser in a Paris cafe. Even the students are not allowed on the field.

Coach Stanton is not usually a stickler on secret practice. He does not have to be; he is beyond the spy zone. Secret practices at Claremont either mean that Stanton considers the Whittier game as a decisive battle, or that he is trying a little psychology on Pomona to work the college up to the annual wall-went-up—the Huns are broke. Practices began; games were played. The fact that the 1914 Huns would be the same terrible fellows of yore.

Mr. Wad Wanted to Know What "Office" He Was Running for!

WORKING IS ABOUT DUE FOR GREAT HEAVYWEIGHT.

Heavyweights are Frequently Revived When it is Least Expected—Champions Seldom Developed by "Hot" Methods—For that Reason "White Hope" Failed—Players Leave for 'Frisco.

By HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

Heavyweight division seems to be bursting prominently on the scene. The heavyweights are frequently revived when it is least expected. Champions seldom developed by "hot" methods. For that reason "White Hope" failed. Players leave for 'Frisco.

One Line Division. The middleweight division, dormant from the days of Ketchell and Papke, is now the only really live one in the game.

Langford Misses Cava. Thum Langford, the Boston "cave" man, has started work at Doyle's well-known gymnasium. Boston is one of the few cities in this country which ever was able to produce a "cave" man.

Scott Departs. Jim Scott and Don Hader left yesterday for San Francisco. Another delegation of the Honolulu tourists consisting of Jack Miles, manager of the tour, Ed Klepper and Johnny Kane, will depart for that city today.

Bliss is Ambitious. Aside from whatever activity he indulges in his trip to Honolulu, Bliss will not play any baseball this winter. He expects to get back in harness regularly next season, and aspires to catch 100 games. Only by taking things easy this winter does he feel that he will be able to accomplish his purpose.

Stephens Coming. Thomas Stephens, prominently mentioned as one of the possible purchasers of the San Francisco club, will arrive here from that city today. He will probably confer with INSTRUMENTS FOR HOWDY BAND ARE ON THE ROAD.

THE special shipment of musical instruments to be used by the famous Howdy Band in its tour of Arizona has arrived and these beautifully equipped horns will be distributed to the musicians Saturday and at the train early Monday morning. A force of ten workmen are busy on the costumes and these are promised for Saturday. The train is rapidly filling and if all reservations are taken up that have been made it will be necessary to either use the upper berths or add an extra car. Chairman Leon Shetler says the train will be kept down to its present size, unless the demand is unusual. Reservations will be held until tomorrow afternoon. The costumes, which are to be worn on special occasions, will be distributed at Needles for the opening parade at Kingman, where a barbecue will be held; at Prescott, where the Howdy Band will be the guests of the Yucapa Club, and in Phoenix. There will

Stock of Giants Rapped Out the Best. Joe Jackson's was Longest on Record. Larry Doyle Hit One Through Knothole.

Home Runs Scored. Owing to the expansion of most of the parks, and consequent elimination of short fences, home runs have become almost a lost art in the Coast League. Lober with nine, led the circuit this season. This is just twenty-one short of the record made by Ping Bodie in 1910. Ping is a good hitter, but he couldn't do anything like that now.

No Color Line Here. The Hoosier Giants, colored, have challenged a team of all-stars composed of Coast League and Eastern players to a game at Washington Park. The deal had no sooner been made than it was annulled. Manager Hiest that it was accepted with avidity by Charles Moore, who believes he can round up a team which will wipe up with the unburned brethren just as the Angels did three years ago. That was an awful job for the Giants, and they have remained calm ever since. But the fact that they have won twenty-eight out of the last thirty games has suddenly emboldened them to the point of tackling bigger game. The splendid contest will be staged at the regular ball yard two weeks from Sunday.

ATHLETICS WOULD HAVE PLAYED FEDS.

MAKING MEN TO MEET THE INDIANS IN ANOTHER SERIES. From a close friend of Bill Phillips, manager of the champion Indianapolis Federal League team, it was learned that the defeat of the Athletics prevented a test of the relative strength of the Hoosier Feds and Connie Mack's stars in a series of five games, which were to have been played after the "first" world's series.

Phillips, when asked concerning the story, refused to either affirm or deny it. According to Phillips' friend, fourteen Athletics played signed an agreement to play as an independent team, when their American League contract expired, against the Indianapolis Federal League champions.

The Philadelphia players were to play under the management of Harry Davis, formerly captain and first baseman of the White Elephants. Two of the games were to be played on the Indianapolis grounds and the other three on Federal League grounds in other cities to be decided on later.

The players named as being in the agreement are Davis, McInnis, Baker, Barry, Schang, Oldring, Murphy, Bender, Plank, and Weyckoff. Collins, Walsh and Strunk.

New York Athletic Club will give a testimonial benefit to Mike Donovan, its veteran boxing instructor, who retired a short time ago, in their clubhouse, on November 14. Many well-known exponents of the art of hit and get away will join in the exhibition contests, including ex-heavyweight champion Bob Fitzsimmons and his son, ex-middleweight champion Tommy Ryan, Jack McAuliffe, the retired lightweight champion, and others.

Fernin Cassagnol, champion billiard player of France, and George F. Stoen of New York city, have arranged to give a series of billiard exhibitions throughout the United States. Their tour includes all the leading cities in the West and Southwest.

HUB PERNOLL SET UNIQUE RECORD AGAINST BEAVERS.

SAN FRANCISCO was the only club in the league to win more games than it lost against the Portland champions this year. This was due chiefly to the efficiency of Hub Pernoll against the Beavers, and the inefficiency of Irvie Higginbotham against the Seals. Pernoll won more games against Portland than any other pitcher won against them; incidentally Pernoll won more games against Portland than he won against any other club.

Pernoll won eight games from the Beavers and lost only three. No other pitcher in the league won more than four games from Portland, and Panning of San Francisco, Check and Hughes of Los Angeles, and Hitt and Klepper of Venice were the only other pitchers who won as many as four games from Portland.

Higginbotham on the other hand, the best winning Portland regular pitcher, lost five games to the Seals. In only three other cases did a Portland pitcher lose more than four games to one club—Higginbotham lost six to Venice, Higginbotham lost five to Los Angeles, and Krause lost five to Los Angeles.

Against San Francisco pitchers, Portland made the following record: Won three and lost eight against Pernoll, won three and lost four against Panning, won none and lost two against Traver, won three and lost three against both Standridge and Baum, won four and lost three against Leitold. Leitold was the only dual pitcher against whom the Beavers won more than they lost.

Martinson and Evans, each with two wins and one defeat, were the only Portland pitchers to win more than they lost against San Francisco. Other Portland pitchers won and lost as follows against the Seals: Harrow, Pape, Hanson and Brown, each won none and lost one; Lush won none and lost two; Klepper won two and lost two; Krause won four and lost four; Higginbotham won four and lost four; West won two and lost four.

The old reserve clause holds him. He has a chance to catch with Cincinnati, Brooklyn and St. Louis and unless the Phillies give him his release he will go over to the Federal. He has had a good offer to manage a club for the "outlaw."

Dooin can take three of the other players. Lebert, the third baseman, has refused to sign his contract. He wanted the manager's job and frankly admits his disappointment. He is offered from Kansas about two other Federal clubs, and will likely get it. Dooin takes the plunge his old friend, Magee, will probably follow. Pankratz, the first baseman of the old reserve who is dissatisfied and ready to take the best offer made him.

PHILLIES LIABLE TO LOSE PLAYERS.

LOBERT, MAGEE AND PANKRATZ ANXIOUS TO LEAVE OLD TEAM. The signing of Pat Moran to succeed Charley Dooin, who has led the Quakers successfully for five years, means the departure of several of the stars of the team into the Federal League ranks, according to a Philadelphia news item.

Dooin's contract, both as manager and player, have expired, and only the old reserve clause holds him. He has a chance to catch with Cincinnati, Brooklyn and St. Louis and unless the Phillies give him his release he will go over to the Federal. THE BOUNCER.

Stock's drive smashed into the bag at third base and then bounced into one of the boxes. The rival third sacker recovered the ball almost before Stock had rounded first, but the umpire, declaring the ball had landed outside the playing field, after first hitting fair, gave Stock a home run. Cy Young, the old Cleveland pitcher, hit out a four-bagger in Cleveland one day. The ball skinned along the first-base line and made for the scoreboard, which then was in short right-hand. The ball hit under the board and into the space between the board and a fence. Before the outfielder could dig it out "Cy," who frequently made 100 yards in forty-seven seconds, "tore" around the base and was credited with a home run.

IN A SALOON. Big Bill Lange, who played with the Chicago team in the old days, what's a ball over the center-field fence in Cincinnati one day. It crashed through the window of a saloon across the street and broke up a pinocchio party just as one of the players was on the point of "making" something like 400.

Snook Freeman, also known as Home-Run Freeman, connected with one of Chief Bender's twisters in a game at Philadelphia and not only lifted the ball out of the lot, but drove it through an open window on the second floor of a house that was a block away from the park.

A LONG ONE. Joe Jackson of the Naps, in the opinion of baseball veterans, hit the longest home run in the history of baseball. It was in a game in New York last year. Joe's drive cleared the top of the left-field grand stand by at least forty feet. When last seen the ball was traveling at a terrific clip, and it was estimated that before the ball landed it must have been 100 feet clear of the park.

Visible Summerman, the quiet, unassuming, peace-loving third baseman of the Cubs, rapped out a brace of homers in one day in Cincinnati. They cleared the center-field fence by about ten feet each. Heine is the only player who ever turned the trick in that ball park.

THE BUN. Miller Huggins of the Cardinals got a dukey home run. It happened in Cincinnati. Miller did things happened there. Miller lifted a fly to right. Before the outfielder could rub the glare out of his peepers Miller slipped around on the bases. Buddy Ryan, once upon a time when with the Naps, poked out a homer with the bases full in Cleveland. It was one of the few times in baseball history that this four-run, with-one-smash stunt was been accomplished.

Larry Doyle has another claim to fame other than that which came through his blow in Pittsburgh. Playing on the Pacific Coast he smashed the ball through the only knothole in the fence. It was in right field. The hole was just a trifle larger than the ball, but Larry drove it square at the hole and the ball, instead of careening off, went through.

Peter Stevens, 3-02 1/2, was the leading race winner of the Grand Circuit this season with nine wins to his credit. M. H. Brett and Frank Deane, Jr., were tied for second place with eight wins.

AT THE STAGE DOOR

Every day is ladies' day this week at the Republic for the "Ragged Dicks," as played by Andrew Mack, is one of the sweetest and wholesomest of the film stories we have had, and no feminine being has to be given trading stamps to win her approval of the happy-go-lucky, lovable, debonaire member of the nobility represented by Mr. Mack.

The famous players are filming Mark Twain's "The Prince and the Pauper," and the Lasky company is considering the limitation of the famous writer's "A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court."

"The book is rich in romantic incident and opportunity for splendid scenic display, and would make a striking photoplay," said Mr. Lasky the other day.

A How is the oldest inhabitant of the valley with animal farm. His name is Dan, and he's hero of a hundred thrilling moving pictures.

But Dan's blind and toothless eyes, and his flesh hangs heavily on his old bones. His wife, sightless eyes look straight into the sun, as he lies in the front of his cage snoring himself and serving out the remainder of his life sentence.

There was a time when they thought to make an end of Dan. That was at the time just before Mr. Selig's last visit. The day arrived for his execution, but quite as thrilling as any of the plots in which the animal served was his own rescue, for his keeper was fond of the brave old beast, most trustworthy of the lion cubs in his day, and never did a king give a quicker reprieve to a subject than Mr. Selig to the old fellow when he arrived and listened to the keeper's request on behalf of Dan. Not only did Mr. Selig reprieve Dan's death sentence, but he ordered him put in the very best cage in the zoo, the warmest one in cold weather, and the biggest one, that he might have a larger space in which to wander.

But Dan's days are not nearly numbered now, and mostly he lies in the sunlight and dreams of who knows what? Old triumphs of his playing time, maybe, or of far-sons of his days.

Some spicy dialogue that in "Kitty MacKay" at the Majestic. Particularly that wherein Kitty and Mac decide to rewrite the Bible.

Mac: The first thing to be ousted would be that Jonah tale.

Kitty: We won't change the English version, though. The English would believe anything.

Mac: But you think the Bible is a bit "dowdy"?

Kitty: Aye, yes, it is, but it's a ticklish matter to tinker with the Book.

Mac: Would you tamper with the Garden of Eden tale?

Kitty: Well, we must leave something spicy, or the book'll never get read!

The Kitty MacKay company are nearly all women, and they have organized a tournament to be played off at different courses along their route.

The Gaiety company is madly rehearsing, morning, noon and night, in order to have "A Stubborn Cinderella" ready for presentation next Monday.

All except Miss Grace Edmund, who played the name part for a whole year in the East, and knows the whole place so well that she can take it apart and put it together again.

By the way, mentioning Cinderella naturally reminds one of feet. And speaking of feet reminds one of Miss Edmund's tribbles, which are almost incredibly small. And thereby hangs a tale.

For sculptor Romanelli, over at the Selig wild animal farm, is sculpting the feminine form divine for some of the decorative fountains, etc. The artist went to see "The Red Widow" the other night and straightway, with the aid of a spyglass, discovered Miss Edmund's feet. He asked somebody for an introduction next day, and got it.

Impulsive Italian clasped his arm and gazing cried: "Ah, signor, your feet!"

Miss Edmund gasped: "What?"

"Your feet," again warbled the sculptor in an ecstasy.

"Are you a chiropodist?" timidly inquired Miss Edmund.

"No, no, your feet I want them!" cried "V." Romanelli.

"But I do I," said Miss Edmund indignantly. "I should like to give 'em to you, or, conversely, have you give 'em to me again at any time in my business. Any other little thing I can do?"

"I would mould them! I would mould them!" exclaimed the gentleman.

"My feet mould!"

But Mr. Romanelli explained he only wanted to sculpt them, and then everybody was happy, for naturally no lady is going to slap a gentleman on the wrist for talking her so pretty feet. So it's quite likely Miss Edmund's feet may, so to speak, kick their way into fame via the marble route.

Edwina Wilson, who appeared with "Sweetheart" in New York, and therefore played opposite Marie Cahill and Nellie Fisher, is to play the Scotchman, a character part in "A Stubborn Cinderella." He says he likes the part, all except the fact that he wishes on him with the role. You know Mr. Wilson is well, willowy, anyhow, and he says his plans and specifications were never intended for kites.

Mr. Wilson tells a most amusing story on himself in connection with his work as a private entertainer in England.

It was at the country house of a Duchess in Yorkshire, where he was to be entertained, as well as entertained, by virtue of letters from some distinguished relatives in Virginia, for Mr. Wilson is an F.F.V. in the first degree. He arrived early in the afternoon, and not at once meeting his

M'GRAW WOULDN'T BE BAWLED OUT.

Fans in New York have criticized McGraw severely for not appearing on the coaching line during the city business, who was absent in the village on some hospital work, strolled through the grounds, becoming so absorbed that he started longer than he intended. As he started for the great house, he met a plainly, almost dowdily dressed woman with a basket. He thought she was a maid, but as she seemed weary, he gallantly offered to carry her basket. She asked him if he was hungry. "I should say so," he answered enthusiastically. "You haven't a sandwich in here, have you?" he asked, jokingly alluding to the basket.

"No, but sit down, and I'll fetch you one."

He sat down, and she brought him one out there in the garden. And when he met the Duchess at tea, she was the lady of the basket. "I just rammed it," said Mr. Wilson, "said 'thank you,' and retired. And then she asked me, mischievously: 'Was it a good sandwich? I made it myself, you know.' Curious!"

Neal Burns of the Gaiety Company is a great golf bug. He complains nowadays, however, that he doesn't have time to play, on account of rehearsals and the learning of new parts. The only green he has a chance to see is that on the pool table of the Spring-street Country Club, better known as Hop House.

Roth St. Denis and her new husband, Ted Shaw, will arrive in Los Angeles December 7 for a week's rest before opening their California engagements. This is Miss St. Denis declares, positively her first and last appearance in matrimony.

The Orpheum press agent sobbingly sends word that when the Matzetta ruins their big trick in their breathless athletic stunt, they don't do it on purpose, at all, to encourage applause, or anything like that. That understanding doesn't relish being the recipient of 150 pounds of flesh catapulted through the air, secured out as worth 100 pounds when it hits his shoulders.

The trick is a really hard one, and if a miss happens, spectators are to understand it's a sincere one.

Someone has dared Charlie Abner to pedal his act to San Diego after it closes here Sunday, Charlie says he is perfectly willing to make the jaunt on his various breeds of machines, but who will go ahead and warn spectators to hold their machines?

FRANCKE BOLSTERS UP HARVARD BACK FIELD.

Trouble with the Crimson Now is with the Line—Don Wallace was the Hero of the Game with Tufts, Being the Only Harvard Man Able to Solve the Phoney Formation Used by that Team.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE]

CAMBRIDGE (Mass.) Oct. 28.—The return of several of the varsity men to the game has enabled Coach Haughton to give the Harvard line-up a good shake up.

Perhaps the two most notable results of his new policy are the shifting of Scurry to right and the arrival in the back field of Hugo Francke, the son of Prof. Kuno Francke of the department of German literature.

Scurry is one of those men who can play equally well in almost any position, and as a consequence he is moved from the pivot position to make room for Wallace, who played so well in the center of the line in the Tufts game.

Francke is one of the heaviest men on the squad, and has already shown that he is an apt pupil of the game as Coach Haughton thought it.

The chief difficulty here seems to be in the line. There are enough good men in the back field to make it fairly certain that Harvard can make good when the team has possession of the ball.

But there has been difficulty in all the games this year in holding the opponents to insignificant gains. Tufts was able to make a touchdown against the Crimson eleven largely because the men in the line were unable to solve the "excuse-my-back" formation of the Medford team. Wallace was the one man who saw through the play in time to break it up. But with the early return of Pennock and Tremblay at the positions near the center of the line, things ought to have a more hopeful aspect.

Pennock is out again with the same leg trouble. There is also the prospect that Ferson, the big man on the crew, will be given one of the tackles in place of Bigelow or Curtis.

If all these changes work out as Coach Haughton wants them to, the Crimson may stand comparison with that of any football team. In fact, the out-

With about as many sensational performances as in any other year of the light harness sport, some of the greatest battles ever waged in certain stake events and a big crop of remarkably clever young trotters and pacers, the Grand Circuit season, which closed last week at Lexington, Ky., was a thriller from a racing standpoint.

series with the Yankees, but the Giant manager had his reasons. After seeing that the crowd had come out to "kick" the Giants because they had lost the pennant, he refused to be the "goat" and let them "booby" him.

McGraw, always loyal to New York, felt this lack of encouragement keenly. Considering that he had won five pennants in ten years and finished one, two, three on four occasions, he cannot well be blamed for declining to allow himself to be made the target of ridicule.

Matty also declared that, after his fourteen years of hard work for New York, he couldn't put much heart in an effort to pitch when he knew his home town was rooting against him.

Both McGraw and Matty were opposed to the playing of the series from the start, and Matty worked only in the first game.

Food that Supported the Children of Israel Believed to be an Edible Lichen now Growing in the Desert.

Pittsburgh Gazette-Times: What was the manna of the wilderness which served as bread for the Israelites during their forty years' wandering?

Scientists and Bible students alike have wondered, almost as did the Israelites when they first saw it. According to the Bible (Exodus xvi:14-15), "And when the dew that lay was gone up, behold, upon the face of the wilderness there lay a small round thing, as small as the hoar frost on the ground. And when the children of Israel saw it, they said one to another, 'Man hu' (What is this?)"

"This is manna," said the angel who had asked the question Man hu, they called the unknown substance manna.

Since that day men have wondered what it was, and now comes the report of scientists that they find a certain lichen growing on the rocks.

CARDINALS ARE NOT ON MARKET.

OWNER BRITTON WON'T BE THE GOAT FOR ORGANIZED BASEBALL.

The St. Louis Cardinals are not for sale and President Britton does not intend to be made the "goat" for organized baseball in any possible peace plan. He gave out this statement last week:

"No one can buy the Cardinals to establish peace in this baseball mix-up," he said. "I cannot see that organized baseball can tell me that I have to sell just to please them. Nor am I going to sell."

The Federal League did not seek permission from me when it entered St. Louis and I will not lend a hand to help them move out. Organized baseball cannot make me the goat if they intend to establish peace. The court will protect my property for me.

"I do not intend to pay the loss the magnates have suffered. They will have to get together and figure out some other idea. I will not sell the Cardinals and will not buy a Federal League club. I've got a third-place club and a probable pennant club for 1915."

"I did not see any promoter rushing around my office when we came home in last place last year. Sure, they want to get in on the big money and a possible world series. Well, Federal League or big league losers, they can't do it on Schuyler Britton."

YOUNGSTERS.

Peter Vole, who reduced the record for three-year-olds to 2:03 1/4; Etawah, 2:03 1/4, who lowered the world's record for four-year-old stallions, Star Winter, Rhythm, Joan and Lee Asbury were among the leading trotters of the season.

But while the racing was of an interesting nature and a credit to the breeders and trainers, the sport on the Big Line showed weakness that was discouraging to the men who are deeply interested. Only three days of racing at Port Erie and Syracuse makes these places weak members of the circuit. Pittsburgh may not give another meeting, although the men who conduct the sport down in the Smoky City have said that before. There is a chance that Goshen will take the burden and try a meeting on the mile track. Such a meet would help the sport, but it is doubtful if horsemen would take to it very kindly.

When Capt. Talbot of Yale lines up against Capt. Ballin of Princeton on Saturday, November 14, it will be the first time since 1896 that two all-American football players have played directly opposite each other.

Capt. James McCord

Mrs. James McCord

Mrs. David McCord

Lieut. David McCord

Six members of the McCord family.

Which celebrated the golden weddings of these three couples and another Tuesday evening and will shortly celebrate a fifth. All the men involved fought in the Civil War and all emerged with military titles. A guest at the quadruple celebration was a guest at each of the original weddings.

Laurelia Park are residents of Huntington Park of this city.

The celebration was made further unique by the fact that each of the grooms of half a century ago is a veteran of the Civil War, and by the presence of Mr. Thomas N. Newell, No. 248 South Mariposa avenue, who was a guest at each of the four weddings. Mr. Newell is the younger sister of Capt. and Lieut. McCord and Mr. King.

McCord's sister was fired on, Ave McCord boys responded to Lincoln's call for volunteers, enlisting from Newton, Iowa. All survived the great conflict and all emerged from the fray wearing the shoulder straps of an officer. Another of the brothers, Lieut. McCord, also a resident of the city, had his golden wedding anniversary at the family home in Newton, while a fourth brother, Maj. Thomas T. McCord, also a resident of the city, had the fifth brother died some years ago.

All the participants in the Huntington anniversary celebration are well over four decades of age, and are well and hearty. A long array of sons and daughters and grandchildren, and many friends and friends were present at the celebration.
